

SPARK YOUR CURIOSITY WITH

Malaysia Biodiversity!

LET'S GO TO PENANG!

Short Term Programme

A two-week programme where you will get to explore the tropical biodiversity and experience the complexity and beauty of some of the most biologically diverse and threatened ecosystems in the world. This programme will cover both 'Genetic diversity' and 'Species diversity' in Penang Island and its capital George Town, the UNESCO World Heritage Site!

What You Will Explore Throughout The Programme:

Cultural Diversity

George Town

Explore the Street of Harmony, Street Art, Fort Cornwallis, Penang Hill, View the entire Island from the top of Komtar, and many more...

Marine Biodiversity

CEMACS@USM

Explore and obtain hands-on field experience at CEMACS, a living laboratory of the tropics! Tropical Coral Reefs, Green Mariculture, and many more...

Tropical Biodiversity

Penang Tropical Fruit Farm

Discover the wonders of Fruit Farm and try many kinds of fruits, especially the king of fruit the so-called Durian, Rambutan, and many more...

Botanical Diversity

Penang Botanic Garden

Explore the historical and cultural heritage of the gardens, the plant collections, and the diversity of flora and fauna. A visit to Tropical Spice Garden, and many more...

With One-Day Visit to Bukit Merah Orangutan Sanctuary!

APPLY NOW!

